HERE

The 1999 Hallmark staff is extraordinarily pleased to dedicate this edition of Rowland Hall's yearbook to Rich Howe

Before coming to RHSM in 1993, Rich Howe had, among other things, spent years working in the publishing industry. Since joining the school community, he has put that experience to use helping editors, photographers, and countless staff members as Rowland Hall's publication's adviser.

Shepherding not only the Hallmark and Gazette to press, he also assists with the publishing aspects of the Mosaic literary magazine. However, Rich's dedication to his students and their work is by no means limited to the pub room or computer lab.

Many students have come to know Rich as a trusted mentor, a faculty member who will do all he can to assist with academic or personal problems. He is always ready to lend an ear or a hand, depending on the situation. His friendship, commitment, and enthusiasm are valued by students and faculty members alike.

Perhaps most strikingly, Rich can often be found working in the midst of a deserted school. Be it finalizing the Sports page of the Gazette or coming in over spring break to finish up the yearbook, Rich puts in much of his own time to ensure that his students' publications will be top-notch year after year. Not that Rich is a martyr of diligence by any stretch... He always finds time to spend with his wife, Janet, and their two children, Stuart and Karen.

Somewhere between camping with his family and working with students on Pagemaker, Rich has managed to make a significant contribution to the lives of many at RHSM. And, though Rich said to us in September that we could dedicate this year's yearbook to 'anyone except me,' we did it anyway.

Rich, thank you for everything...

DANCE COMPANY '98-'99

Dance Company had a very eventful year. They experienced different movement with several choreographers this year including; Todd Allen, Rosie Banchero, and Tina Misaki. Also this year the company performed in numerous concerts including three in the Larimer Center and one at Brighton High School. Alex Rasmussen gracefully and successfully held her own concert in April, completing her dance distinction. This year Mary Lombardi and Katie Eyre represented the company on the Ririe Woodbury Teen Board, a board that allowed students from various high schools around Utah to get together and take free classes from R.W. In May, the company was asked to perform the choreography they learned from RDT members.

"When hell freezes over, we'll ski there, too.!"

"It's been real, man." —Duane Clark

I bet you never thought you'd look back at the good times and cry and look back at the bad ones and smile.

Congratulations Brittany!

*May all your dreams
keep coming true*

*We share your hope that his life holds
No boxed-in dreams, no pre-planned molds,
But endless opportunity
To learn, to love, to grow, to be.*

Congratulations!

Two roads diverged in a wood, and I —

I took the one less traveled by,

and that has made
all the difference.

—Robert Frost

We commend you for a life lived well which had made a difference.

*The first miracle of you Left me
Speechless (briefly) with joy and Blinded with emotion
The new/now miracle of you
Finds me
Standing (tall)
in Awe
and Clear-eyed with pride
I love you the best, Mom*

Congratulations, Rebecca

PETER CHARLES KOELSCH

Our deeds still travel with us
from afar,
And what we have been makes us what we are.
-George Eliot,
Middlemarch: Ch. 70

I am so proud of you!
-Love, Dad

PETER CHARLES KOELSCH

If you can dream - and not make dreams
your master;
If you can think - and not make thoughts
your aim,
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And - which is more - you'll be a Man,
my son!
-Rudyard Kipling

I am so proud of you!
-Love, Dad

A man's work is nothing but a slow trek to rediscover, through the detours of art, those one or two things in whose presence this heart first opened.

— Albert Camus

*Where are you going my little one, little one?
Where are you going
my baby, my own?
Turn around.....you're tiny.
Turn around.....you're grown.
Turn around.....
You're a young woman
with dreams of your own.*

*Time flies when you're having fun!!!
Love, Mom and Dad*

Andrew . . .

. . . We're very proud of you!

Much love —
Mom, Dad, Jennifer,
James, and Fred

Dear Anna:

Taken altogether by you,
By your wit and your smile,
By your drive and your driving...

Careful to watch
As your talents find their way to light,
As your enthusiasm and Clear mind explores and learns.

And just as we listen to your Sweet, clear, high and loud laughter;
Just as we hear it
Floating up on you as a child--
You grew up.

Love,

Mom and Dad

You family loves you!

Education, experience, and memories are three things no one can take away from you. — H. Jackson Brown

Congratulations! We're proud of what you have done and who you have become. Love, Mom, Dad, and Mark

To Christina -
 If you can imagine it,
 you can achieve it.
 If you can dream it, you can become it.

Love -

Marie, “If you follow your bliss, you put yourself on a path that has been there all the while, waiting for you, and the life that you ought to be living is the one you are living.
Wherever you are--if you are following your bliss, you are enjoying that refreshment, that life within you....”

Love and Best Wishes,
Mom, Dad and Nate
